

Research Coordinator (Atrial Fibrillation Patient Navigator) - 1 position

Lawson Health Research Institute

Part Time

Non-Union

Posting #: 37252

Posting Date: June 27, 2017

Submission Deadline: July 03, 2017

Karen Topfer, Human Resources

Term position anticipated to extend until August 31, 2018, subject to the availability of work.

The Atrial Fibrillation (AF) Patient Navigator is a member of the Cardiac Rehabilitation & Secondary Prevention research team who serves as an advocate and educator for patients with AF as well as a coordinator for the network of services that provide care to these patients. The AF Navigator collaborates with a multi-disciplinary team of staff from St. Joseph's Health Care London and London Health Sciences Centre as well as primary care community partners to ensure high-quality, comprehensive and timely care. The AF Navigator also encourages and supports patient education as well as therapeutic lifestyle modification plans.

Hours of Work: Approximately 20-25 hours per week

Essential Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree or equivalent qualification/work experience in nursing will be considered;
- Current certificate of registration from a college recognized under the Regulated Health Professionals Act;
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills in English. Ability to communicate general and clinical information effectively both verbally and in writing at all levels;
- Ability to use electronic medical records (EMR), email, telephone and fax;
- Excellent interpersonal, organizational and planning skills to work effectively in a complex environment and have the ability to deal with confidential matters;

Preferred Qualifications:

- Prior clinical experience, preferably in adult medicine/cardiovascular related fields;
- Experience working in an academic/research environment;
- Demonstrated ability to collaborate with a team (e.g. including faculty, staff, students and residents);

Required Certification(s):

- BLS CPR Training

Your interest in this opportunity is appreciated. Only those under consideration will be contacted.